

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WALES PRIVACY NOTICE

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN THIS PRIVACY NOTICE?

The Presbyterian Church of Wales ('PCW') is one of the largest Christian denominations in Wales. PCW's aims are to worship God and to spread the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. As a Connexional Church, the PCW is governed by one Association which meets in three Provinces, and the General Assembly, its Boards, Departments and Sub-Committees in those matters devolved to the Assembly by the Association.

This document (our "privacy notice") sets out information relating to how PCW use personal information relating to individuals we have dealings with, including members and elders of the church, adherents, people connected with the PCW, people who make donations to PCW, users of our website. It also sets out information about what rights individuals have in relation to their personal information and various other matters required under data protection law.

This privacy notice contains the following sections:

2. WHAT'S OUR APPROACH TO PRIVACY?

We take your privacy extremely seriously and want you to feel confident that your personal information is safe in our hands.

We will only use your personal information in accordance with data protection law applicable to England and Wales.

Under data protection law, when we use your personal information, we will be acting as a data controller. Essentially, this means that we will be making decisions about how we want to use your personal information and why.

Below, we summarise the main rules that apply to us under data protection law when we use your personal information:

1.	We must be upfront about how we intend to use your personal information and must use your personal information fairly. Providing privacy information to individuals (such as this privacy notice) is one aspect that helps us to fulfil this obligation.
2.	We must only use your personal information if one of the legal grounds set out in data protection law apply. These legal grounds include that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have consented to our use of your personal information; • We need to use your personal information to perform a contract between us; • We (or someone else) has a legitimate reason for needing to use your personal information and it would not be unfair to you if your personal information was used for this purpose. This is known as having a “legitimate interest” and we must weigh up your rights and our interests before we can rely upon this ground; • We need to use your personal information to comply with the law.
3.	We must only use certain types of sensitive personal information (such as information relating to a person’s health, racial origin or religion) if we can also satisfy one of the conditions set out in data protection law. These conditions include that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have given us your explicit consent to use the information; • We need to use the information in the course of the legitimate activities of PCW and the information is not being disclosed outside PCW; • You have made the information public; • We need to use the information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another person; • We need to use the information in connection with a legal claim.

4.	We must only share your personal information with others if we have a legal ground for doing so (see point 2 above) and/or (in relation to sensitive personal information) we can satisfy a condition (see point 3 above).
5.	Generally speaking, we must only use your personal information for the specific purposes we have told you about. If we want to use your personal information for other purposes, we need to contact you again to tell you about this.
6.	We must not hold more personal information than we need for the purposes we have told you about and must not retain your personal information for longer than is necessary for that purpose (known as the “retention period”). We must also dispose of any information that we no longer need securely.
7.	We must ensure that we have appropriate security measures in place to protect your personal information.
8.	We must act in accordance with your rights under data protection law (see Section 9)
9.	We must not transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”) unless certain safeguards are in place. One such safeguard is that the personal data is only transferred to a country that has been approved by the European Commission as having an acceptable level of data protection law or if this does not apply we will ask for your consent to transfer your personal information outside the EEA.

3. HOW WILL WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

How we will use your personal information, the legal bases we will rely upon, how long we will keep your personal information and other details will depend upon who you are and why we need your personal information in the first place.

In this section, we provide specific privacy information relating to the different categories of individuals that this privacy notice applies to.
