Let us pray.

You are holy, Lord, the only God, and “your deeds are wonderful.” You are strong and great because you are the almighty God and Father. And we worship you in this service and giving you all praise and honour because it is our privilege to do so. We worship you in the name of Jesus Christ who lived and died for us and was risen in glory to give us hope of new and eternal life, and we realise, hopefully, and by grace, that we are united with you, God our Father, through Jesus Christ alone because that he is “the way, truth and life.”

And as we give you honour and thanks for your love through Jesus, we praise you for your strength through the Holy Spirit, who is not only our Comforter, but our Strength – the Spirit who has worked throughout the ages and have given people hope and courage to testify for Jesus in different times and circumstances. God, the Three in One, we give you our genuine praise.

We commend to you everyone who is in need today, especially those who are oppressed by illness and the thought of failure in whichever circumstances they are based.

We also pray for the situation of the world today as we realise that you are the God of peace and justice. “Make us channels of your peace” today.

Help us to listen to your Word in every aspect, and by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, enable us to testify for Jesus, and to use every opportunity to do so.

Lord, accept our prayers, as we ask this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ himself. Amen.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Are we able to hear the voice of God in and outside of our temples?
2. How do we respond to the voice of God? Nervous or willing?
3. Where is our mission today?
